ABOUT US

Welcome to Silkohome, your premier destination for stylish and functional backyard office pods designed to enhance your work-from-home experience. Crafted with high-quality materials and contemporary designs, each pod maximizes comfort and functionality. We believe that a well-designed workspace can elevate your productivity.

WHAT WE DO?

We bring materials on site and we build pod in your backyard. Access is no issue as we bring materials first and construction will be done on site.

Our rooms are fully insulated with Australian made insulated panels.
