PalmaTech Team Application - Full-Time

To: pse-outreach@trivago.com

Introduction	Hi I'm Debbie O'Brien. I love what I do, I could spend 10 hours working on CSS/Sass and it would feel like 10 minutes. I love coding and seeing results. I like fixing problems and love challenges. I love learning new things. I want to be the best I possibly can at what I do and to do that I need to work with the best so that I can continuously improve and grow and learn. I want to be part of a team, a good team and I want to write code day in day out (but not weekends!!) and get paid for it. Thats my dream!

The Imposter Syndrome

Assumption

Reality

Jodie Foster won two Best Actress Oscars for her performances in The Accused and The Silence of the Lambs. Still, Foster was worried she'd be discovered to be a fraud. "I thought everybody would find out, and they'd take the Oscar back. They'd come to my house, knocking on the door, 'Excuse me, we meant to give that to someone else,'" the star admitted.

In 2013, Harry Potter actress Emma Watson revealed in Rookie magazine, "It's almost like the better I do, the more my feeling of inadequacy actually increases, because I'm just going, 'Any moment, someone's going to find out I'm a total fraud, and that I don't deserve any of what I've achieved.'"

Nine star Penelope Cruz shared her internal struggles in a CBS interview in 2009, saying, "I feel every time I'm making a movie, I feel like [it's] my first movie. Every time I have the same fear that I'm gonna be fired. And I'm not joking. Every movie, the first week, I always feel that they could fire me!"

Meryl Streep holds the most Academy Award nominations of any actor, having been nominated 21 times and winning three. Even still, she questioned her abilities, saying in a 2002 USA Weekend interview, "You think, 'Why would anyone want to see me again in a movie? And I don't know how to act anyway, so why am I doing this?'"
