1	Ran well to time, presentations engaging and easy to follow in a virtual format	10/15/2020 10:10 PM
2	the hole programme and approach	10/15/2020 11:02 AM
3	very professional, good mix of live endosocopy and theoretical parts	10/13/2020 4:34 PM
4	The overall symposium was very interesting. A lot of different topics, each not too long. Very nice to see so much videomaterial and live interventions.	10/13/2020 3:41 PM
5	Everything, in all honesty.	10/12/2020 10:06 AM
6	The practicum approach	10/11/2020 12:54 PM
7	all players in de field were present	10/10/2020 5:37 PM
8	high level of scientific input, perfect streaming	10/10/2020 8:34 AM
9	Most of the sessions were very didactic	10/9/2020 3:33 PM
10	The symposium met my expectations. A very clear overview of important topics of everyday practice in endoscopy. I think not only usefull for trainees but also for gastroenterologists.	10/9/2020 12:48 PM
11	Kudos! All was arranged absolutely Fine! Keep it Up:)	10/9/2020 12:05 PM
12	Superb speakers, discursive format to discuss reasoning for actions and decisions.	10/9/2020 11:25 AM
13	professional recordings, interesting speakers	10/9/2020 10:10 AM
14	As described by Dr Tate in the initial presentation- the focus of this symposium was on 'day to day' endoscopy (+ advanced polypectomy techniques) - far more practical than previously attended endoscopy symposia. Video & sound quality excellent. Choice of presenters - excellent	10/9/2020 6:25 AM
15	Live sessions	10/8/2020 11:01 PM
