

Avoiding Community Collapse when Passing the Torch

Laura Santamaria

A bit of Austin community history

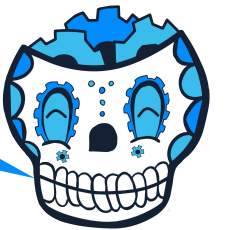

An overview of the past 11 years

DevOpsDays Austin and local meetups

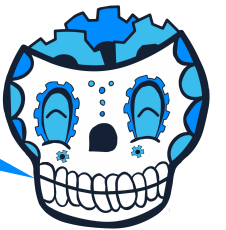

The diverse sets of core organizers

... And a culture of support

And then the world changes

Dangers and pitfalls in passing the torch

Failure lessons from Docker Austin

Failure lessons from Docker Austin

For the leader stepping down

For the newcomer stepping up

Keeping things afloat

Selected successes

Handoffs aren't goodbye forever

Change is good

Don't be afraid to change

Help the community go along

Remember, temporary is better than forever
