MEDICINE MAN — RAINMAKER

A black and white portrait of Jeffrey Zeldman, a man with dark curly hair, a beard, and glasses. He is wearing a dark jacket over a dark shirt. The background is blurred, showing what appears to be an office or studio setting with some equipment.

“...our industry as a whole thinks less and less about accessibility (not that we ever had an A game on the subject), and talks less and less about progressive enhancement, preferring to chase the ephemeral goal posts of over-engineered solutions to non-problems.”

— Jeffrey Zeldman

Today, my dad cried over the phone, he wanted one week where he could use his computer without my help.

He's blind.

Each inaccessible webpage tells him, "you aren't welcome in this world."

If you don't know whether your website or app is accessible: it's not.

Start learning.
