WEIZENBAUM: COMPUTER && VERNUNFT?

Come gather 'round users
Wherever you roam
And admit that the walls
Of your gardens have grown
And accept it that soon
You'll be trapped by your phones

If your data to you is worth saving
Then you'd better start hacking or you'll be left alone
For the times they are a-changin'

Come bloggers and journalists
Who prophesize with your pen
And keep your eyes wide
The scoop won't come again
And don't tweet too soon
For the market's in spin

There's no tellin'
who that it's naming
For the startups now will be later to win
For the times they are a-changin'

Come senators, congressmen

Please heed the call

Don't block innovation

With your patent laws

For he who gets sued

Will be he who has stalled

There are lawsuits abound and they're paying

Quit reading my emails and listening to my calls

For the times they are a-changin'

Come mothers and fathers
Throughout the land
Don't grant those permissions
You don't understand
Your apps and your data
Are beyond your command

Your privacy is gradually eroding

Come fight for a web

we can all understand

For the times they are a-changin'

Neutrality must stay

The peoples' vote it is cast

This network of ours

Will always be fast

As emerging markets

Will later be vast

The digital divide will start fading Monopolies of now will later be last
For the times they are a-changin'

commentary in snack-sized mouthfuls

"I want AI to do my laundry and dishes so that I can do art and writing, not for AI to do my art and writing so that I can do my laundry and dishes."

Author and videogame enthusiast Joanna Maciejewska nails it (although bathroom cleaning goes ahead of laundry and dishes)

"I'm sure I deserve
