The Fildena 100 is a potent remedial therapy for those males who are suffering from impotence and looking for an effective option for enjoying long and intense of orgasm during intercourse. The working action of the medicine is due to the chemical composition. It includes the compound Sildenafil Citrate. This has already been working as a potent composition for improving and enhancing sexual performance in males whose life has already been disturbed immensely due to the erectile failure issues.

Which company introduced Fildena in market?

This remedy formulation has been introduced in the market by the pharmaceutical company named Fortune Healthcare. Soon after it is introduced in the market, the formulation has become the most reliable source for men for achieving guaranteed outcomes through the improvement in erectile functioning and mechanism.

How Fildena 100 cure ED?

The chief and the main ingredient that is occurring in this therapeutic formulation is Sildenafil Citrate. It is this specific of compound which causes the relaxation of blood vessels for facilitating the smooth blood flow within the male genitals specifically the penile region through inhibition of the PDE5 enzyme.

It is this specific of enzyme, that is having a diminishing impact on the flow of blood towards the erectile area in male genitals. Once the cGMP is being induced, there is an increase in the concentration of nitric oxide. This causes the inactivation of an enzyme that subsequently leads to enhancement in the blood flow to male genitals improving the whole mechanism of penile erection.

How to consume Fildena 100?

For the males with erectile failure symptoms, this is surely a wonderful remedy for getting relief and improving sexual performance. The males can consume in for achieving a proper and stiffer erection for gratifying all their sexual needs along with the fulfillment of pleasures.

One crucial thing to remember here is that this medicine is prescription based and has to be taken only as per the suggestion and recommendation of a specialist. You can take the pill around 45 minutes to an hour before with a glass of water.
