If you decide to change your plans, Spirit's cancellation policy may allow passengers to receive a complete refund. However, your flight ticket must satisfy the following criteria in order to get a refund:

- A full refund is available for canceled flights made more than 60 days prior to travel.
- For flights leaving after seven days or longer, cancellations made inside 24 hours of booking are eligible for a full refund.
- Spirit Airlines' cancellations of flights are eligible for a full reimbursement.
- Any flight delay longer than two hours is eligible for a full reimbursement.

- A flight change is eligible for a complete refund.
- A full refund is possible in exceptional cases like death, significant sickness, jury duty, etc., but only with supporting documentation and Spirit Airlines' consent.

Spirit Airlines 24-Hour Cancellations

If you cancel a flight with Spirit Airlines within 24 hours of booking, you will receive a full refund as long as the flight leaves at least seven days afterwards (i.e., after 168 hours). For all fares, this regulation is in effect.

A fee will be assessed to passengers who change their flight within seven days of departure or even more than 24h after buying the ticket.

Spirit Airlines Cancellation Policy for COVID

Due to COVID-19, Spirit cancellation policy expired on March 31, 2021. This policy allowed for the free cancellation of any trips on the airline that dates down to March 31, 2021. Additionally, this policy allowed for the free cancellation of any trips on the airline that dates up to March 31, 2021.

However, you must inform Spirit Airlines as soon as possible when your aircraft takes off if you are required to cancel your flight reservation as a result of COVID-19 or if your doctor recommends against travelling owing to a COVID-19-related issue. Most likely, your ticket will be changed into a Booking Credit that can be used for upcoming trips. In some instances, you might be given a refund.

Spirit Airlines Cancellation Due to Weather

You will have to organize your travel arrangements if your trip is cancelled because of bad weather or other factors beyond Spirit Airlines' control. The airlines will try their best to give you information to assist you in finding lodging on your own, but they won't pay for your accommodation. You might be qualified to reschedule your flight and submit an application for a Booking Refund that you can use to travel later if your onward travel is unnecessary since your flight was delayed due to weather.

Spirit Cancellation Fee

The chart below shows how the Spirit Airlines cancellation fee changes according to when you cancel your reservation.

Cancellation Time	Cancellation Fee
Within 24 hours of purchase	USD 0
60-plus days before departure	USD 0

59 – 7 days before departure	USD 49
------------------------------	--------

6 – 0 days before departure	USD 99
-----------------------------	--------

Standard Tickets

Spirit Airlines' standard ticket cancellation policy stipulates that, in order to receive a complete refund, customers then must cancel within the allotted 24-hour period or at least sixty days before departure. If you withdraw outside of these windows:

- According on when you cancel, you may be charged a cost (see table above).
- Your refund will be given to you as a Spirit Airlines booking credit for future travel.
- Only the traveler for whom the credit was granted may use the reservation credit.

Always keep in mind that you can withdraw your Spirit Airlines reservation up to one hour prior to departure, but you will be charged.

Flex Tickets

The Flight Flex insert allows you to adjust your itinerary once without charge, but you cannot cancel it. However, if you do, based on that, when you leave, the regular fees will be applicable.

Award Tickets

The cancellation procedure for Spirit Awards tickets is the same as regular access. You will be assessed a cancellation percentage fee on your departure date if you withdraw a Spirit Airlines ticket after the allotted 24-hour period has passed.

- According on when you cancel, you may be charged a cost.
- Your account will receive a deposit of your return points.

You must call to cancel award tickets; keep this in mind.

FAQs-

Q1 Spirit Airlines cancelled my flight. What are my options?

You have two options if Spirit Airlines postpones your travel: accept the provided alternate flight or request a refund.

Q2 How do Spirit Airlines cancellations work?

For cancellations made with Spirit Airlines, a full refund is due if:

- You cancel a minimum of 60 days prior to your scheduled departure.
- You cancel your reservation within 24 hours, but your flight leaves at least seven days later.
- There is a flight cancellation.
- There is a two-hour or more delay in your flight.
- Your flight gets postponed, but you don’t like the new flight.
- You revoke a reservation for a flight on March 31, 2021.
- Any unusual circumstances, such as losing a fellow traveller or a close family member, a significant sickness, jury service, etc., prevent you from making it to your flight.

If you don’t fit into one of the aforementioned categories, based on when you cancel, you may be required to pay cancellation fees.

Q3 What is the Spirit cancellation policy?

Tickets purchased from Spirit are not refundable, according to their cancellation policy. However, you can be eligible for a cash refund if you cancel your ticket at least 60 days prior to takeoff or if you do then within 24 hours of purchasing if your flight doesn't leave until at least seven days later.

If a Spirit Airlines flight is cancelled and its replacement is unsuitable for you, you may request a refund. Flights purchased for travel on or after March 31, 2021, were also eligible for a refund. Nevertheless, Spirit might let you request a refund in the event of your death, a critical sickness, etc.

Q4 Can I cancel my Spirit Airlines flight without penalty?

You may change any Spirit Airlines flight plans without being charged if:

- You void the reservation at least sixty days before travel.
- Your flight leaves after seven days or more, and you cancel within 24 hours.
- Your flight is cancelled by Spirit.
- There is a two-hour or more delay in your flight.
- If Spirit changes the time of your flight, the new time doesn't work for you.
- A member of your immediate family passes away; you become gravely ill; you are summoned to jury duty, etc.

If you don't comply with these requirements, you'll be assessed a cancellation fee ranging from USD 39 to 99, depending on when you cancel.
