Our Conveyancing Services

Pre-Contract Advice: Before you sign any contract, it's essential to understand its terms and implications. Our team will review the contract, highlight any potential issues, and ensure that your interests are protected.

1. Property Searches and Due Diligence: We conduct thorough searches to uncover any issues that may affect the property, such as easements, zoning restrictions, or outstanding debts. This due diligence ensures that you are fully informed before proceeding with the purchase.
2. Contract Preparation and Review: Whether you are buying or selling, we prepare and review all necessary documents, including the contract of sale and vendor statement. We ensure that all legal requirements are met and that the documents accurately reflect the terms of the agreement.
3. Settlement and Post-Settlement Services: We manage the settlement process, coordinating with all parties involved to ensure a smooth transfer of ownership. After settlement, we take care of any remaining legal formalities, such as lodging transfer documents with the relevant authorities.

Why Conveyancing is Important

Conveyancing is a critical component of any property transaction, ensuring that the transfer of ownership is legally sound and that all parties are protected. Engaging professional conveyancing services can help prevent costly mistakes, delays, and potential legal disputes. At FCM, our meticulous approach to conveyancing helps safeguard your investment and provides peace of mind.
